City Seeks Priority On Flood Control Funds

A resolution fixing the new city tax rate at 71c per $100 assessed valuation of property, was approved Monday night by the City Council, this rate being eleven cents less than the rate estimated in the budget message issued last month by Mayor Richard Morton. The new valuation of property in Campbell is $6,951,340 which is $1,200,000 more than the 1953-54 rolls. The tentative rate of 82c had been based on an estimated $6,000,000 property assessment.

Mayor Morton said Monday he had checked figures closely and found that percentage-wise, Campbell made the third largest annual gain in property values among Santa Clara County cities being only exceeded by Sunnyvale and Mountain View where substantial industrial properties have developed.

The general property tax needed is $48,151.33 the balance of the $171,843.41 budget being accounted for by $70,547.85 brought forward, $20,000 from state allocations, $8,000 from business licenses, $9,223 from fines and forfeitures and $1000 from bicycle and dog licenses. Tuesday the city received a check for $778.85 for building inspection fees and for fines collected in July.

The council passed a resolution fixing Monday, September 27 for a public hearing on the proposed annexation of the 84-acre Amato-Bellicitti annexation.

The city is not involved with inspections of a trailer camp at 142 Dillon avenue owned by Hugh Nelson, so City attorney Joseph Bonacina is to so advise Nelson's counsel that County and State inspections are provided.

The subdivision map for Lewellen Park (Workman tract) was accepted.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors today, a resolution from the City of Campbell will be presented seeking priority in the allocation of flood moneys for San Tomas Aquino Creek. Campbell was the first city to propose that the county set up funds for flood control, having in mind the control of San Tomas Aquino and Los Gatos Creeks. Mark Thomas, city engineer said there is some thought given to diverting surplus San Tomas Aquino waters to Los Gatos Creek through culvert usage at a north point. The watershed of San Tomas Aquino Creek must be controlled if lands in the west part of Campbell are to develop and a parkway built. The resolution is to be drawn up by City Attorney Joseph Bonacina and the meeting today will be attended by both Mayor Morton and City Engineer Mark Thomas.

On recommendation of LeRoy Black, superintendent of public works, Richard Domaine was employed as helper in that department on a temporary basis.

Council deferred until the close of the year, consideration of changing fire-plugs at Campbell and Second, Harrison and Grant, Central and Dillon and at Railroad and Central.

Police Chief Robert Locke reported on operating costs of patrol cars, a Pontiac at 4c per mile, Ford at 4 1/2 to 5 1/2c and Chevrolet at 3 1/2c all in San Jose police department, 6-cylinder Ford at Santa Clara at 4c, a Chevrolet at 3 1/2c and Ford at 6c in Los Gatos. Chief Locke said the Oldsmobile by the Campbell department has operated at a cost of 4c per mile for the last nine months period including gas, oil and repairs and that it covers 4500 miles per month. Council will put it in serviceable condition and wait for a 1955 model before considering a purchase.

Council agreed to the PG&E proposal to trim to thirty-five feet, trees on West Harrison street which threaten to interfere with high voltage line. Council told LeRoy Black he could remove dead walnut trees on Rincon near Winchester.

At the meeting of September 30 Mayor Morton is to be absent and Councilman John Chargin was designated to serve as mayor, pro tem.

LOS GATOS TAX RATE IS $1.27 PER $100

The tax rate set by the town council at Los Gatos will be $1.27 per $100 of assessed valuation, the same as last year. An increase would have been made had it not been for a substantial increase in assessment rolls.

Kiwanians Hear
Why U. S. Should Support Japan

Dr. David Dooman, Los Gatos physician who served overseas as army Captain doctor and who spent much of his life in Japan, told members of the Campbell Kiwanis Club on Tuesday that Japan is our plank toward protection from Asiatic invaders. Like America and England, Japan has never been invaded, nor has it been colonized so the patriotism of its people is in keeping with those of America and England.

Dr. Dooman said, Japan with fewer square miles than California, is inhabited by 90-million people and that by 1960 it is expected to have 100-million. Of the 100,000 members of the communist party registered there, many have in recent month, disappeared, evidently to be indoctrinated by Soviet interests for future activity. Born in Japan, Dr. Dooman is the son of an author of numerous books on oriental history.

Present at the meeting Tuesday as visitors were Ray Townsend of Wichita, Kansas, Cliff Swanson and Joe McKinnon of San Jose. Program chairman was Rex Jeffers. Next meeting of the Kiwanis Club will be at the home of the Rex Bishops at Los Altos where a barbecue dinner will be served.

Cambrian Bank To Open Next Monday

An open house will be held Saturday, August 21, at the new Cambrian Park branch of Bank of America in Campbell, it was announced today.

Residents of this area are invited by Roland Rizzo, branch to provide speedy banking service to this region, Manager Rizzo pointed out, and will be accommodated a large public parking lot.

In size the bank measures 35 by 120 feet, of which approximately 1400 square feet will be utilized for public lobby. Facilities of the lobby include four desks for loan and operations officers, 13 teller windows, and a new vault holding 1500 safe deposit boxes. A night depository box is installed on the outside front for customers wishing to leave deposits after banking hours.

Blending with the chalet-type architectural motif of the Village, the new bank building has both glass front and side, and is decorated with brick trim. It is equipped with modern fluorescent lighting, and acoustically-treated ceiling.

Located immediately adjacent to the main entrance of the shopping center, it is convenient to the extensive parking area in front of the Village. Mail address is 14396 Union Avenue, Los Gatos.

Manager Rizzo is a seasoned officer of Bank of America, having joined the statewide organization in 1930, and having served subsequently in San Mateo and San Bruno branches prior to being named pro-assistant cashier at San Carlos in 1942. In 1944 he was promoted to assistant cashier.

Married and the father of a family, Rizzo is a former student of the University of Santa Clara and has studied with the American Institute of Banking.

He announced that the branch will observe the following hours: 10 a. m.-3 p. m. Monday through Thursday, and 10 a. m.-6 p. m. Friday.

A part of the Cambrian Park Village, the new branch bank will serve the growing residential area southwest of San Jose and northeast of Los Gatos. It will be more than adequate in size and facilities

EMERGENCY POLIO FUND
DRIVE IS LAUNCHED HERE

The Campbell Kiwanis Club having endorsed the emergency polio drive, today designated its membership to receive donations and arranged specifically to have the American Trust Bank, Clarks Drug Store, the Campbell Water Company, Campbell Press, Nelson Grain Company and Glenn's Service Station as receiving agencies. A dozen or more cans are being placed in the downtown area for contributions.

At the meeting Tuesday, Jim Wright of the law firm, Miller, Morton and Wright said this is the first and will be the last emergency drive for polio funds in Santa Clara County, reason being the need for vaccine preventive program under way which is expected to reduce the number of polio cases substantially. He said future quotas will probably be lessened with the success of the present emergency campaign.

On the program also Tuesday, as speaker of the day, was Dr. David Dooman, a physician who traced briefly the history of polio since 1916 and of its constant alarm to the medical field. He warmly endorsed support of the emergency campaign. He said polio-fighting funds throughout the nation are exhausted. Mrs. Robert Jasmine is chairman of the Campbell-Saratoga section campaign.

Application for the job at Hamilton must be made with Chief Robert Locke of the Campbell Police Department as the job at this school is under the jurisdiction of the city.

The Dover School crossing guard will be an employee of the California Highway Patrol and for information about this position applicants are asked to call the school's business office at FR 8-3405.

Any able bodied citizen, either male or female, is eligible to apply for either of the positions.

Police Auxiliary
Needs Volunteers

Chief Robert Locke of the Campbell Police Department this week announced that the police department is now taking applications for three openings in the auxiliary police department.

Any male residing or employed within the city of Campbell or the immediate surrounding area is eligible as long as he is 21 or over.

There will be a training school for volunteers in October emphasizing all phases of police work including self protection and judo.

The volunteer organization also has at least one social function a year for members and their families.

Fire Department

Members of the Campbell Fire Department responded to a call to extinguish a grass fire at 29 Gilman Ave. Monday evening about 5:00 p. m.

Owner of the property is Henry Gratten and firemen were able to save a building which stood within two feet of the flames.

Special Meet
For Volunteers

Chief Jack B. Scott of the Campbell Fire Department has called a special meeting of volunteers to be held September 1 at 7:30 p. m. at the firehouse.

This special meeting will be held instead of the meeting set for September 6 as that date will fall on a holiday.

SHOULD BUSES PARK DOWN-TOWN?

Parking spaces in the downtown shopping area are important both to the merchant, who pays a business license and who supports local enterprises, and to the patron who seeks to park conveniently near the store. Bus stops are usually to be found on an off-street, if there is no sheltered station required for them.

Some of the merchants of Campbell are concerned over the assignment of some ten valuable parking spaces on East Campbell Avenue for the Peerless bus lines, saying that the function of this line is to transport people, some of whom are shoppers, to San Jose, to Los Gatos and to Santa Cruz, at each of which cities it is a requirement that the bus line firm maintain its own off-street station.

There is no denying that a stopping place is needed for this transportation media, but it seems the merchants are justified, too, in their contention that they should not have to sacrifice parking spaces for their potential customers in favor of this out-of-town firm which adds little if anything to the coffers of the city government in contrast to what the merchant contributes.

THE NEW CITY TAX RATE

A ten cent cut in the potential tax rate for 1954-1955 in Campbell is welcome news to property owners. An editorial in the Press last week anticipated some such savings, when it was announced that the assessed taxable property roll for Campbell had increased twenty percent over the previous year's figure.

Mayor Richard Morton, in announcing the tax savings, said that Campbell is one of the three cities of Santa Clara County having the greatest percentage increase in its taxable properties within a single year, something highly complimentary in that we are only exceeded by Sunnyvale and Mountain View, where tremendous industrial expansion has been realized within a year.

IT'S FUN TO SHOP IN CAMPBELL

Dollar Days are here again in Campbell. Merchants have gone all out with bargain lists inviting local patronage.

This is the kind of cooperation which starts business returns to grow, and which stimulates a community spirit. It's fun to shop in Campbell, on these dollar days, where merchandise orders are made easily available to observant patrons.

LAND OF OPPORTUNITY

Next Monday, a new branch of the Bank of America will open in Cambrian Park just a little ways from the city limits of Campbell. In just a few months, it seems, this new community of homes has grown to the magnitude that it is deemed ready for banking facilities.

An item of interest about the development of Santa Clara County communities concerns the $147,000 bond issue of the Alviso Elementary School District just bought by the Bank of America. Banks are buying bonds all the time, of course—but these bonds were of particular significance.

The Alviso school happens to have been the first school ever attended in the mid-1870s by a six-year-old lad named Amadeo P. Giannini, child of immigrant parents. Some years later, "A.P." founded the bank which became the world's largest, the Bank of America, which bought the bonds of the Alviso School District.

Some of the old settlers of Campbell remember when, as a young man, A.P. went around from ranch to ranch buying produce within his means, and which he sold at a meagre profit—some of the ranches where he called being in the Cambrian Park area, where on Monday a branch of the bank he founded, will be opened.

This is America, and it really did happen here.

HOW TO KEEP THE CUSTOMERS

It's no mystery why people keep on patronizing certain stores. They trade with them because they believe they can get lower prices, or better service, or more attractive selections, or some other appealing inducement.

What may not be so well known is why people stop patronizing certain stores and take their business elsewhere.

A recent survey showed that of all customers lost by stores, one percent died, three percent moved away, five percent changed because of friendship, 14 percent had grievances, and nine percent were not accounted for. That leaves 68 percent. And this big majority took their trade elsewhere because of indifference on the part of the store. In other words, they had been made to feel that their patronage was not needed.

Nowadays merchants of all kinds and sizes, independents and chains, are concentrating on improving their contacts with customers. The fact that we are in a strong buyers' market has made that inevitable. A rude or inefficient or bored salesperson can drive squads of potential customers away, and for keeps. So successful retail stores are seeing to it that customers are warmly and courteously greeted and made to feel wanted and at home.

This is good for the stores. It is good for the buying public, too.

From June to September

The Campbell Gambol

WHEN HUNT'S CANNERY

Closed down late in '53 to confine area operations to their Hayward plant, it seemed that business might have fallen off here, but so far during the harvest season, the reverse seems to be true according to some of the merchants.

Itinerant help called for extra help, wanted special items not ordinarily carried in stock and filled the stores to an extent to drive regular customers to other shopping centers. Some workers established here buy locally and go to canneries out of town to work, so business has been just about up to par, operating costs are lower and parking space is not cluttered up with sleepers, the all-day space users.

PRUNES are falling all over the yard and there is nothing to do about it but pick them up. The little piece I wrote about them last week brought some response and sympathy. A San Francisco banker wrote to know where all the prune orchards are down here for all he could see in several visits were new subdivisions replacing orchards. Another local reader sent over a man who offered to buy the crop if boxed up properly and someone called to find out what I do about the bees that get inside the end of a prune where birds have pecked it open. All of which reminds me of a piece I once wrote about the poison oak I got while playing golf and the 27 odd suggested cures some of the readers had sent in.

CHERRY FARMER of the Santa Clara County Fair is none other than Ebb Bohn of Campbell who for six years has brought this character to life. For about three months out of each year he dons farmer costume of blue denim bib overalls, yellow duster and boots, combs out his long, bushy beard, adjusts his spectacles, grabs his carpet bag and sets out puffing on a corn-cob pipe advertising the county fair. Children fondly talk to him and cheerfully do he talk to them. In real life here in Campbell he has seven grandchildren. His oldest son is president of the Campbell 4-H club and two of his sons plan to exhibit hogs this year. Bohn carries goodies about in his carpet bag visiting playgrounds in search of a ten year old Junior King and Queen. He conducts talent contests in various parts of the county, doing a good job in behalf of the county fair.

JIM MUIR, BUC'S COACH, SCHOOLS AT CAL WORKSHOP

Highlighting the workshop will be a football and basketball symposium. Heading the football discussions will be Chuck Taylor, head coach at Stanford university and named coach of the year in 1953. Also on the football symposium will be Homer Beatty, head coach at Bakersfield college, and George Bican of C. K. McClatchy high school in Sacramento.

The basketball symposium will be headed by Robert "Duck" Dowell of George Pepperdine college. Ken Fagans of Centennial high in Compton also will lecture.

In baseball Bob Fatjo of Bear-rmine high in San Jose will head the discussions. Patty Cottrell, New York Yankee scout, will participate.

LAW IN ACTION

OUR CHILDREN AND THE LAW

Children are our greatest natural resource. And the law treats them as such. The law does much to make sure that children have a chance to grow up into healthy, educated adults. For as adults, they must carry on our government, industry, and business.

Under the law, a father has a duty to support his minor children, even though the parents are divorced, and either or both have married again. For example, take John Smith. When he and his wife Susan were divorced, the court ordered John to pay Susan $100 each month to support their children.

John paid each month for a year. Then he heard that Susan had married again. So he quit. Officers arrested him on a charge of deserting his children, a crime punishable by imprisonment.

John protested to his lawyer that his former wife had married again. His children had a new father. So he no longer owed a duty to the children.

The lawyer told John he was still the children's father and he was responsible for their welfare, at least until the step-father or some one else should adopt them, or until they became of age. But so long as Susan's second husband had not adopted the children, John had to pay to support them. The court could send him to jail for failing to obey the court order. Even without a court order, John could go to jail for neglecting his children.

Other reluctant fathers have learned that in 1951 the California Legislature adopted the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act. It aims to enforce both the civil and criminal law relating to the support of children against fathers who leave the state.

There are only a few of the things our law does to our children.

The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Gene Andres Wins Tennis Singles

In a tennis tournament sponsored by the Campbell Recreation Department held August 9 through August 12, Gene Andres became the advanced singles champion by defeating Tom Goulding in the finals 6-4, 6-2.

The beginners' singles champion, Mark Wright, defeated Fred Andres 6-1. All the beginner singles and doubles players played one set while the advanced players played two out of three sets.

The advanced doubles champions are Don Brown and Gene Andres. They defeated Rich Gugat and Lance Mortenson 7-5, 6-2. The beginners doubles champions are Gary Barnett and Fred Andres. They defeated Ron Dodd and Bill Campbell 6-4 in a very close match.

This tournament climaxed six weeks of recreation tennis in which many players showed vast improvement. The tournament was so successful that thoughts are being turned toward having a girls' tournament next year in ad-

SPORT TAKES

by PAT HERNON

YOUR "LUCKY" SPORTSCASTER

Sid Flaherty, manager of middleweight champion Bobo Olson, has gone far enough out on the limb to predict that his fighter will be remembered as the equal at least of the fabulous Stanley Ketchel. That's quite a prediction—even for a manager interested in building the gate for the Olson and Rocky Castellani bout. It recalls Kid Gavilan's boast before fighting Olson that he would lift the 160-pound crown and then challenge Rocky Marciano.

There has been talk of four possible next changes in the Pacific Coast League before next season gets underway. Mentioned are Clay Hopper of Portland, Tony Freitas of Sacramento, Jerry Priddy of Seattle and Bill Sweeney of Los Angeles. A glance at the standings will explain why these managers are the pigeons. The four clubs make up the loop's second division.

The televising of the recent "Miracle Mile" in Vancouver was a remarkable artistic and athletic success and should increase interest in track and field among the general public. The spectac-

Hear Pat HERNON's Lucky Lager play-by-play re-creations of major league games of the day over KVA. For the week of August 22 the broadcast times are: Sunday (Phillies-Dodgers) 11:15 a.m.; Monday (baseball classic) 10:25 a.m.; Tuesday (Tigers-Red Sox) 10:55 a.m.; Wednesday (White Sox-Senators) 10:55 a.m.; Thursday (Giants-Cubs) 11:25 a.m.; Friday (Phillies-Cubs) 11:25 a.m.; Saturday (Tigers-Yankees) 10:55 a.m.

ular pole vault and the distance events are particularly suited for televising. In many of the other events differences in time and distance are so small that the average fan would be unable to make them out.

When the pitching staff of the San Francisco Seals is shorted by injuries, Tony Ponce becomes all the more valuable. The Merry Mexican thrives on overwork and if given plenty of rest can't seem to pitch winning ball. Incidentally, his record would be mighty impressive now except for the six heart-breaking losses he suffered while the Seals were getting untracked in the season's first weeks.

If he develops as expected, the Chicago Cubs have an extremely valuable piece of property in 19-year-old Bob Thorpe of the Stockton Ports in the California League.

Already a 20-game winner, the San Diego youth is leading the league's pitchers in almost every department that indicates consistent ability—such as games won, innings pitched and complete games.

If attendance at the exhibition games is any indication, the West Coast representatives of the National Professional Football League are in for good seasons.

Both the San Francisco Forty Niners and the Los Angeles Rams have been drawing surprisingly good crowds at the pre-season contests.

The headaches of putting out pre-season evaluations of college football teams are nowhere better indicated than in the sections devoted to the University of California in the national football forecasts. All of them point to Ronnie Knox as a big factor in the Bears' expected gridiron success. How could they know in advance Knox would give up a year's eligibility to transfer to UCLA?

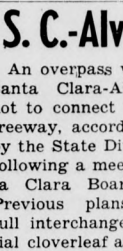

CAMPBELL MAN NAMED PROFESSOR AIR SCIENCES UNIVERSITY CINCINNATI

After a year in Germany, Col. Charles M. Dittrich Jr., 1053 Walnut Drive, Campbell, has been appointed professor of air science and tactics at the University of Cincinnati.

Under him will be a staff of 15 officers and airmen and approximately 700 Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets. Colonel Dittrich replaces Col. James A. Col. Charles M. Dittrich Jr. has been given an assignment with the Sixth Air Force and stationed in Tazmir, Turkey.

Holding a bachelor of science degree from the University of Connecticut, Storrs, Colonel Dittrich, in addition to stations in the United States has served with the Air Force in the Panama Canal Zone, 1932-34 and 1937-39; Philippines, 1946; Japan, 1946-48; France, 1951-53; and Germany, 1953 until coming here.

Colonel Dittrich holds the aeronautical ratings of senior pilot, airplane observer, and combat observer. With his wife and two daughters, Maryanne V. and Gretchen M. Dittrich, he will live at 3034 Montana Avenue, Westwood Cincinnati.

COL. CHARLES M. DITTRICH JR.

S. C.-Alviso Road Overpass Planned

An overpass will be built at the Santa Clara-Alviso Road so as not to connect with the Bayshore freeway, according to plans made by the State Division of Highways following a meeting with the Santa Clara Board of Supervisors. Previous plans had called for a full interchange there and a partial cloverleaf at Coffin Road.

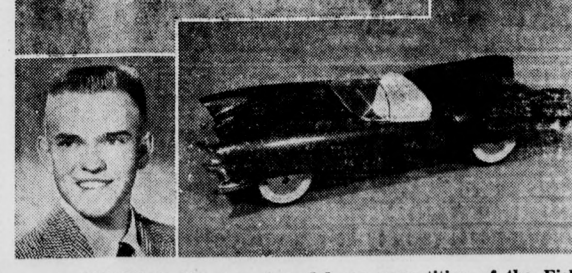

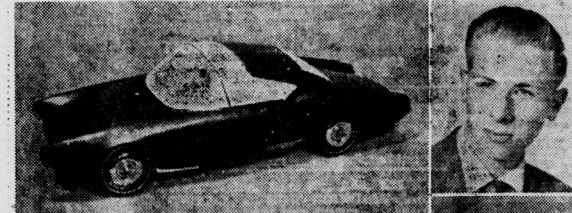

New interchanges will be constructed at the extension of Scott road above Santa Clara and at the extension of Stockton avenue.

Only original project remaining unchanged is the full interchange scheduled at Lawrence Station. The state highway official who appeared before the supervisors Monday was J. C. Black. He said that San Jose city officials had expressed a willingness to participate in the Stockton avenue extension cloverleaf.

Santa Clara City Manager Joseph Base also appeared before the supervisors to state that his city approved of the new state proposals as far as effecting Santa Clara.

The City of Santa Clara and farmers of that area had previously objected to the Santa Clara Alviso road cloverleaf as taking up too much valuable land. The farmers claimed the land-taking would interfere with a green belt on the north side of the Bayshore, while the City of Santa Clara complained it would reduce the size of a potential industrial area on the south of the freeway.

California Boy Designers Win

WINNERS in the annual model car competition of the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild are Charles Pelly (upper right) of Los Angeles, who took first state honors in the Junior Division (ages 12 through 15), and Jerry Sutton of Fresno, whose beautiful model car won first in the Senior Division (ages 16 through 19). Each received a cash award of $150. Both boys' models went on to take regional honors and a chance to win a university scholarship in the national competition.

SERVICE FUNDS AID CAMP FIRE

One of the agencies receiving funds from the Campbell Community Service Fund is Camp Fire Girls Inc. which is under the supervision of Mrs. Wayne Lenz and Mrs. Leslie Jauncy in Campbell.

Between the Fall of 1953 and the Spring of 1954 there were 15 new Camp Fire groups registered in Campbell with a total of 346 girls participating and more wanting to join.

The objective of the organization is to bring a leisure-time, character building program to girls between the ages of 7 and 16, regardless of race or religion, that will increase skills, broaden interests and offer opportunity for creative group activities.

To make this program possible locally many women volunteer their time and serve as leaders of the various groups.

Among these leaders are Mmes. B. W. Creighton, Del Lucot, Robert Morrow, Gunnar Peterson, John Ward and Harold B. Gardner, San Tomas; Harry Smith, Beryl Garcia, L. E. Means, Everett Nelson, Joseph Voytek, Raymond Davis and Miss Alice Smith, Campbell.

Mmes. Lawrence Evans and Boyd Papa, Rosemary; Michael, More, Vincent Perandri and H. Tragardh, Cherry Lane; Edwin Simpson, Sherman Roy Hammonds and M. Kennedy, Cambrian.

George Ballantyne, B. Gillmore, and C. W. Neale, Moreland; Julian White and Caswell Neal, Quito; Balbecker and George Charlton, El Quito; Leslie Jauncy, Wilcox, Chapman and McEwin, Moorpark.

Mrs. Harry Stroy is the District Leaders Association representative to the Community Chest.

POLIO CONTROL POSSIBLE

The Kiwanis Club is behind the emergency fund for polio funds. Money is needed to carry on an emergency control plan which may reduce our future quotas. Polio is no longer the same as infantile paralysis, for it is striking even more frequently at the agile people of 18 years and over. It might be you or your child. Wouldn't it be better to help toward its control now?

Ivy Geranium Is No Forget-Me-Not; Needs Little Care

"Plant me and forget me," could well be the words spoken by an Ivy Geranium. This colorful garden item thrives so well on neglect that it seems to invite lack of attention and surely needs no extra fussing to make it a showy bank of color the whole summer long. Available as flat lavender, purple and white there is a good color range with which to work.

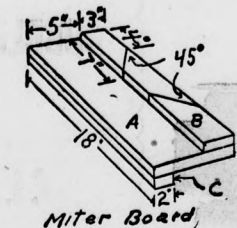

The uses for ivy geranium are varied. Bank cover—curb planting—hanging pots—window boxes and even as house plants for a sunny window where anything else, except cactus, would fry. And the results for the little effort required are always amazing. As flat grown ivy geranium is seldom heavily rooted care should be taken in starting off the new plants. A daily soaking and a top mulching of 1/2" of peat moss should keep them from drying out. If the weather is hot, shading should be set up for the first week or ten days.

Having developed a vigorous growth on a planting of ivy geranium it is wise to keep them trimmed regularly to induce short bushy growth and new flowering wood. Also regular spraying should be made to control woolly aphids which is the prime pest of ivy geranium. Watering pockets should be made when the plants are set out into the open garden as cultivation becomes impossible due to the heavy growth of the plants and the shallow root structure. The watering schedule should be in the nature of twice a month soakings to induce deep root penetration. Fertilization is seldom needed unless the plants develop symptoms of malnutrition. Generally the entire geranium family are light feeders and a yearly mulching of steer manure or gar-

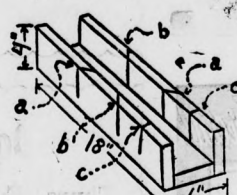

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A MITER BOARD OR BOX

Miter joints are neater and stronger for many purposes such as for picture frames, drawers, etc., than are the ordinary lap joints. The miter board is made of 1-inch lumber. Piece A is 8 by 18 inches. Piece B, 3 by 18, is fastened flush with one side of A. A line drawn from a point 4 inches from the outer corner of B to another point 7 inches from the opposite inner corner produces a 45 degree angle. A slot is sawed through this line. A similar slot, made from the other end gives the workman a 45 degree angle in both directions. Piece C, 2 by 18, fastened to the under side of the board, serves as a brace against the work bench. When using the board, the wood to be angled is placed on A and held firmly against B. Sawing is done with a backsaw or ordinary crosscut. In the miter box, the two slots form a 45 degree angle; as do also the two slots b. Slots c provide a 90 degree angle. In making the miter box, a square should be used to mark the angle cuts.

Chevrolet Agency Has New Owner

Grant Bishop has recently taken over the Chevrolet dealership in Los Gatos located at 114 North Santa Cruz Avenue.

Before coming to Los Gatos Bishop owned the Chevrolet agency in Morgan Hill for three years and previous to that time was associated with Garden City Chevrolet in San Jose.

The Chevrolet line features three distinctive models and the new sports model, the Corvette, which is now on display at the Los Gatos agency.

In addition to a complete new car line Chevrolet produces five standard truck models with trucks that can be made to fit any job.

According to the operators of the Los Gatos agency, Chevrolet has been the leader for years and they intend to endeavor to keep that position.

The sales department is under the management of Boyd C. Fair who makes his home in Campbell and the sales staff includes Marc Tatum, Gay Brown, Vic Winters of Campbell and Don Moore.

In addition to the new car show room, Bishop has a large used car lot at 528 North Santa Cruz Ave. which is under the management of Gene Cathey and features "OK Used Cars".

A completely equipped and modern service and parts department with nine factory trained employees is under the direction of Bill Mattish.

Bishop also has both AAA and National Automobile Club.

First National Bank Contract Is Let At Los Gatos

The First National Bank of San Jose has today awarded a general contract for the construction of their new Los Gatos Office to Oscar Meyer.

Among the principal subcontractors were American Sheet Metal Works, air conditioning; Diebold Incorporated, vault fixtures and equipment; Mastercraft Wood Products, Los Altos, tellers' counters and fixtures. It is estimated that the total building contract, together with equipment and fixtures, will exceed $150,000, and that the bank's investment in their new Los Gatos Office will approximate $200,000.

Construction is to start at once and it is expected that the building will be completed and ready for occupancy during the early part of next year.

Two Projects For Improvement Club

Approximately 22 members attended a meeting last Thursday of the San Tomas Improvement Club held at the Fred Smith rumpus room.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

MAPPING THE WAY

AFTER A CENTURY OF HAPHAZARD SURVEYING—OF TREE BOUNDARIES AND WHEELOR PACE MEASUREMENT—THE U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY WAS ESTABLISHED 75 YEARS AGO, TO EXPLORE AND MAP THE COUNTRY'S RESOURCES WITH SCIENTIFIC ACCURACY. EVEN NOW, MUCH OF THE WORK REMAINS TO BE DONE—SO THE AGENCY IS STILL 'PIONEERING' IN A SENSE.

WE AMERICANS, IN A YOUNG AND VIRILE COUNTRY, HAVE JUST BEGUN TO REALIZE THE POSSIBILITIES, SO VAST AND RICH ARE OUR RESOURCES. INITIATIVE, ENTERPRISE AND THRIFT, AND THE CARE WITH WHICH WE MAP OUT OUR PLANS, HELP US IN ATTAINING OUR GOALS. WHETHER WE'RE EXPLORERS, FARMERS, FACTORY WORKERS, SCIENTISTS, OFFICE PEOPLE—WE'RE ALL STILL PIONEERING.

American Trust Names Maillard To Directorate

J. W. Maillard, III, has been elected a Director of American Trust Company, according to an announcement made today by James K. Lohead, President, following the bank's regular monthly Board meeting.

Prominent in civic affairs, Maillard served as president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce in 1953, and is a former President of the Associated Food Brokers of Northern California.

Born in San Francisco, Maillard has been active in business circles in San Francisco since 1935 except for a period of four years spent in military service in World War II. He is the brother of Congressman William S. Maillard.

THIRD BUTCHER AT DOUBLE AA

Carl W. Haas last week joined Mario Saia and Bill Samford in the operation of the Double AA Meat Shop in the Double AA market at 690 East Campbell Ave.

Haas has had a wealth of experience in the meat business and has been cutting meat in the Santa Clara Valley for the past ten years, the last two of which he has been in the Campbell area.

He and his wife and daughter make their home near Campbell. Saia and Samford took over the meat department in April and due to the steady growth of their meat business felt that a third butcher was necessary to continue the type of service which has become the policy of the shop.

With the additional butcher there will be more time for each butcher to spend with the customer helping him with the selection of his meat.

OLD SARATOGA RANCH IS SOLD FOR TRACT USE

Sale of 26½ acres of the Dr. Robert L. Hogg prune and apricot orchard on the southeast corner of Santa Clara-Saratoga Road for a large subdivision was made to J. W. Lee, East Bay developer for $3,000 an acre.

The original 90-acre ranch was purchased 91 years ago by John Houreacan, father of Mrs. Agnes J. Hogg. Dr. Hogg has been a community leader for many years, and was a practicing physician 30 years before retiring in 1926. He later entered the real estate business, in which he still is moderately active.

Lee was represented in the transaction by Joseph S. Lodato of Argonaut Realty Co., which has developed a large subdivision on Saratoga-Sunnyvale Road. Sales and promotion for the new tract will rest with his firm. Dr. Hogg was represented by Irl V. Crowe of Sullivan Realty Co. in San Jose. San Jose Abstract & Title Insurance Co. is handling escrow work. Plans call for development of the 26½ acres into half-acre lots, installation of paved streets and gutters, sewers and other utilities.

CONG. GUBSER VOTES FOR FARM PRICE SUPPORTS

Appreciation of the action of Congressman Charles S. Gubser in voting against rigid price supports for farm products in 1955 was expressed today in a letter to the Congressman from George H. Wilson, president of the California Farm Bureau Federation.

"This was very hard-fought legislation," Wilson declared, "and while its passage does not mean a return to full flexibility in 1955, it is a very definite improvement in the farm program. I believe it will provide a better opportunity to dispose of burdensome farm surpluses and the return of a free market more favorable to all farmers."

"On behalf of the California Farm Bureau Federation," Wilson wrote, "I want to express sincere appreciation of the fact that you supported this legislation in the interest of the farmer as well as of the general public."
